

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Kensington

The Women's Missionary and Church Aid Societies of the Warner Memorial Presbyterian Church met in the Sunday school building on Wednesday, the Missionary Society being called to order by the president, Mrs. Rumer, at 11 o'clock. Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. J. P. E. Kulmer, of Washington, vice president of the Foreign Presbyterian Society of Washington city. Mrs. Louis W. Maxson and Mrs. C. G. Dickson gave reports of Presbyterian and synodical meetings recently held in Washington. "A call from a Cornish Princess," read by Mrs. Robert Martin, was followed by an original paper by Mrs. E. K. DePuy, "Messages From Our Missionaries." Mrs. C. W. Clum gave some account of the work being done in New Mexico.

Luncheon was served by Mrs. J. B. Kinross, Mrs. B. A. Chapin, Mrs. A. H. Binnear, and Mrs. J. Harry Cunningham, after which a meeting of the church aid society was held. Final arrangements were made at this meeting for the annual church supper, to be held in the Sunday school building, November 20 and 21.

Among the appointments made are the following: Fancy table, Mrs. Charles H. Davidson, chairman; candy table, Mrs. Chapin and Mrs. Martin; ice cream, Mrs. Maxson, Mrs. Holbruner, Mrs. Dickson, cakes, Mrs. Knapp, Mrs. Lewis, supper tables, Mrs. B. H. Warner, Miss Gayley, Mrs. DePuy, Mrs. Stringer, salad, etc., Mrs. J. T. Brady, Mrs. Dodge, coffee, Mrs. Hartshorn, Mrs. Milliken; kitchen, Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. Buck, Mrs. Tapplet, Mrs. McQueen, Mrs. Terrell, tickets, Mrs. Harry Armstrong, Misses Gayley, Pitts and Chapman. Tickets for the supper will be 25 cents.

Services at St. Paul's.

The services at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church today will be the regular preaching service at 11 a. m., when the pastor, Rev. A. E. Spielman, will preach on "The Gentleness of God." There will be evangelistic services in the evening at 7:30.

At Warner Memorial.

The Rev. Dr. Henry Rumer will preach at Warner Memorial Presbyterian Church this morning on "Christ's Likeness to Men." At the evening service, at 7:30, the sermon will be on "The Woman of Samaria." Miss Polk-Inhorn, of Washington, will sing at the morning service.

Gave Thimble Party.

Mrs. Hugh Armstrong entertained a number of ladies at a "Thimble Party," Tuesday afternoon. Among those present, were Mrs. Donaldson, Mrs. William Armstrong, Mrs. Harry Armstrong, Mrs. C. W. Clum, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Summer, Miss Dodge, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Gayley, Mrs. Eugene Jones, Mrs. Townsend, Miss Gayley, Mrs. J. Harry Cunningham, Miss Chapman, Mrs. Knapp, Miss Pitts, Mrs. Herrmann, Mrs. Terrell, Mrs. Milliken, Mrs. G. W. Ashworth, Mrs. Hodge, and Mrs. Paul Tapplet.

Personals and Notes.

The meetings of the ladies' society auxiliary to St. Paul's M. E. Church, will be held at the home of Mrs. E. C. Fowler, on Prince George avenue, next Wednesday, beginning at 11 o'clock a. m. The ladies of the congregation are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Brett Branson entertained three of the public school teachers, Misses Isherwood, Robertson, and McIlwain, at dinner last Monday evening.

The ladies of the Chevy Chase Baptist church, met at the home of Mrs. James B. McKeen, on Washington street, Kensington, last Thursday afternoon. They were addressed by Mr. Pepper, of Mine, who is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Everett W. Varney, of North Chevy Chase.

Miss Isherwood and Miss Robertson were the guests of Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. Byron Cook.

The Woman's Club, of Kensington, met last Friday at the home of Mrs. Harry C. Armstrong. The program consisted of a paper on "Ancient Rome," by Mrs. Albert Davidson, a review of the works of Winthrop Churchill by Mrs. Terrell, and "Current Events," by Mrs. Ashworth.

Some of the recent building improvements in Kensington are the remodeling of the house purchased on Washington street by Mr. Fisher, the erection of a new barn on A. C. Warthen's place, and the building of a new dwelling house by Mr. Peter's house is about completed, and he expects to move his family into it next week.

Louis Harr, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Harr, of Capitol View, was taken to one of the Washington hospitals during the past week, but is steadily improving. Mr. Harr has been ill for five weeks from pneumonia.

Mrs. Arthur Hendricks has returned from Atlantic City, much improved in health.

Mrs. Payne, of Washington street, has been called away on account of the serious illness of her mother.

John McQueen, formerly of Forest Glen, spent a few days the past week at his old home. He returned to New York on Wednesday.

Miss Elizabeth Rushforth and Miss Mary Moss, of Silver Springs, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Cunningham, on Warner street.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Snyder have gone to Washington, where they will spend the winter months. They are located at the Logan, Thirtieth and Iowa Circle.

Miss Josie Ridgely, of Washington, was a recent guest of Dr. and Mrs. Hodge.

Mrs. Rebecca Nevin, who has been for some weeks the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Warner, returned to her home last Thursday.

Mrs. Loren H. Milliken, of Washington, spent Wednesday in Kensington.

Misses Agnes and Caroline Nichols, of St. David's, Pa., are guests at the Manse this week.

Mrs. Noel McQueen has returned from a trip to Boston. Mrs. McQueen spent

Falls Church Va.

On Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's father, George W. Forbes, on Broad street, Miss Minnie Eleanor Forbes was married to John W. Seay, Jr. The wedding was a quiet one on account of a recent death in the family. The Rev. John L. Kilmer, pastor of the Southern Methodist Church, performed the ceremony. The house was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and autumn foliage. The bride was attired in a brown cloth traveling dress and carried bride roses. She was attended by Miss Annie Seay, sister of the groom, who wore a gray dress and carried pink roses. The bride was the recipient of a number of beautiful presents. Immediately after the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Seay started on their wedding trip. After Thanksgiving they will be at home to their friends on Great Falls street.

Improvement Society Meets.

The Village Improvement Society met with Miss Mattie Gundry on Monday evening. The most important item of business transacted was the vote to lay a brick sidewalk on the north side of Broad street from Washington street to Little Falls street. Dr. and Mrs. T. Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McGourty, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Garner, Miss Mamie Hawthurst, Miss Marianne McGowan, Miss Emily Mowat, and the Misses Nourse joined the society.

Concert for Organ Fund.

The concert on Tuesday evening given for the benefit of the Congregational Church organ fund, under the management of Mrs. Pickering Dodge, was a great success. Songs were rendered by Miss McEwen, Miss Noble, accompanist, and the pianola played by W. Gray Hawley.

Transferred to Washington.

The friends of Miss Margaret R. Nourse, who has been in the engineer's office of the War Department in Washington, N. C., will be glad to hear that she has been transferred to the Geological Survey, in Washington, D. C.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Murray, of The Plains, Va., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harry A. Fellows.

Dr. McKee, of Washington, is supplying the pulpit for the Rev. G. S. Somerville during his absence.

Miss Sue N. Riddle and brother, Dr. David H. Riddle, left Monday for a visit to Chambersburg, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Dudley entertained the Misses Sallie and Carrie Hall and Stewart and Frank Hall, of Lewinsville, at dinner on Tuesday.

Robert M. Elliott and family, who have been occupying Miss Nellie Soranble's house this summer, have returned to their home in Washington.

Mrs. J. S. Garrison, of Washington, was in town for a few hours on Wednesday.

P. H. McNulty is visiting friends in Sedalia, Mo.

Miss Alice McNair, of Danville, N. Y., is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Eugene L. McNair, on Maple avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Newell had as their dinner guests on Thursday the Misses Gertrude and Margaret Nourse.

Mrs. Eugene L. McNair entertained the King's Daughters Circle at their all-day meeting on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll V. Shreve have returned from their bridal trip, which included a visit to Newport News, and Norfolk, and will spend the winter with Mrs. Shreve's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Ellison.

S. H. Anderson is enjoying a hunting trip among the mountains of West Virginia.

Mrs. J. M. Smoot entertained her mother and sister, Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Spencer, from Washington, Friday and Saturday.

The Rev. George S. Somerville, rector of the Old Falls Church, is spending two weeks in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bergmark, who have been with Miss Nellie Green, have returned to their home in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Ryer have gone on a trip to Southern California.

Miss Grace Gundry, of Catonsville, Md., is visiting her sister at Gunwell.

Mrs. Wilfred McCordie and little daughter, Jeanne, have returned from a week spent with friends in Washington.

Some time in New York, Philadelphia, and Bethlehem, Pa., on her way home.

Mrs. Albert S. Gately, Mrs. W. T. Hutchinson and Mrs. Queen, of Washington, spent Wednesday in Kensington.

Mrs. Elizabeth Townsend, who has been spending the summer at the home of her son, J. Wilson Townsend, on Montgomery avenue, returned to New York on Wednesday. Mr. Townsend accompanied his mother, and will visit his sister, Mrs. Andrew Mayer, in Brooklyn, before her return home.

Mrs. Ackley, of New York, who has been spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Filer, on Knowles avenue, but returned to her home on Thursday.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Greene, who recently moved into the house formerly owned by Mr. Harry S. Ridgely, is very ill from pneumonia.

Mrs. G. R. Chapman, of Baltimore, returned to her home a few days ago, after having spent a week or two at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George W. Ashworth, on Washington street. Mrs. Ashworth accompanied her mother to Baltimore and visited her for a couple of days.

Mrs. W. H. Dolson and little child have been with Mr. and Mrs. Alle Dobson for the past week.

Bloomington

A wedding of much interest in Bloomington took place at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Robert H. Wood, when their daughter, Miss Arabella White, and their son, Mr. Addison, of Boston, Mass., were married by the Rev. Compton Ball, of Metropolitan Baptist Church. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Edith Barker White, and the groom was attended by Milton C. White, brother of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Addison left for New York, and will go thence to Boston to visit at the home of the groom's parents. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lange, Miss Ida May Lange, Elmer Johnson, Mrs. Walter Sherwin, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. White, Nelson White, Mrs. John H. Wood, Mrs. Emma E. S. Arby, Mrs. E. Spielman, Capt. and Mrs. Robert Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Noonan, and J. T. White, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents from Cincinnati, Washington, Philadelphia, and Boston. They will be at home to their friends after December 1, at 19 Adams street northwest.

Miss Carrington Entertains.

A party was given by Miss Cora Carrington at her residence, 1700 Fifth street northwest. Vocal and instrumental music, dancing, and various games were indulged in until a late hour. Refreshments were served. Among those present were Misses Laura Radcliffe, Belle Caffery, Emily Gladd, Cora Carrington, Mary Caffery, Rose Connell, Ella Nott, Evelyn Hunter, Beale Dove, Maggie Lyons, Mamie Spaight, Marie Randall, and Messrs. Bernard Weirich, Edgar Carrington, George Harvey, Edward Hoskins, William Richardson, Harry Howell, Charles Gladd, Elmer Carrington, John Brabern, and Wade Luckett.

Tendered Surprise Party.

A surprise party was given Miss Olive Lewis at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Marshall, 123 Adams street northwest. Vocal and instrumental music was rendered, after which refreshments were served. Those present were Miss Eleanor Langlois, Miss Mildred McElfresh, Una Ray, Olga Melich, Ruth Harrison, and Messrs. Owen Lewis, Allen Sherman, Paul Kretzer, Harvey Howard, Paul Moore, James O'Connell, Albert Langlois, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Huggins, and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Marshall.

Mrs. E. Richard Gasch entertained the Wednesday Matinee Euchre Club at her home, 1741 North Capitol street. After the games a dainty luncheon was served, amid pretty decorations. Those present were Mrs. Archibald Edmonston, Miss Lillian C. Smith, Mrs. Lee McConnell, Mrs. Charles McGuigan, Mrs. Margaret Sterne, Mrs. William Clark, Mrs. Ella S. Knight, and Miss Ruth McDonald.

Weyrich-Menefee Nuptials.

Miss Gertrude Weyrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Weyrich, was married Wednesday evening at the Church of the Epiphany, by the Rev. Edward Mott, to Randolph A. Menefee. A sister of the bride, Miss Marion Weyrich, acted as maid of honor, and Misses Beesie M. and Jessie Weyrich, as bridesmaids. Julian Menefee, brother of the groom, was best man. The couple received many pretty wedding gifts.

Entertained Her Friends.

Miss Sara A. Dyer recently entertained a large number of her friends at her home, 503 First street northwest. Games of various kinds kept the party in high spirits all evening. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Among those present were Mrs. C. H. Dyer, Misses A. Cier, Olive Pushor, Lulu Pate, Grace Marshall, Lula Roberts, Mabel Halley, Adelaide Sterne, Edna Rathvon, Alice Farrell, and Helen R. Dyer; also Messrs. Fred Lecker, William Boyd, George Aiken, Lawrence Pyle, Myron Clear, and Thomas Dyer.

Gave a Taffy Pull.

Miss Alice Simonds, of 212 Florida avenue northwest, gave a taffy pull to a number of her friends. Games were indulged in until a late hour, when refreshments were served. Among those present were Misses Alice and Hazel Simonds, Ruth Fart, Marie and Ethel Smith, Mr. and Mrs. James Simonds, and Douglas O'Brien.

Personal Notes.

F. H. Linthicum, of 215 First street northwest, who is at Ann Arbor, Mich., has been admitted to the Delta Tau Delta Fraternity at that university.

Emanuel Stein, of Guatemala, Central America, is the guest of his cousin, Mrs. S. Oppenheimer, at her home, 604 Q street northwest.

The Rev. M. P. School, of Baltimore, occupied the pulpit last Sunday at the Zion Evangelical Church, corner Fifth and P streets northwest.

Miss Marie Jett and children, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. R. C. Warfield, have returned to Baltimore.

Announcement is made that Thomas Lyddane, of the vicinity of Germantown, Loudoun county, and Miss Emily Williams, of Poolsville, are to be married on November 25.

Sappling Ridge, the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Myers, near Unity, this county, was the scene of a wedding at noon on Thursday of last week, when their daughter, Miss Margaret Boone Myers, was married to Walter Farmer of the Unity neighborhood. The officiating minister was the Rev. Peter Royden, rector of the Episcopal Church, at Olney. Those present included relatives and intimate friends of the young couple.

Edward Cooley, seventy years of age, died on Sunday night at his home near Barnesville, this county, of cancer of the stomach. His widow, who was Miss Austin, and five children survive him.

Miss Alma Gostin, of 111 Eleventh street southeast, entertained the Theta Pi Sorority, at her home Saturday evening. After a business meeting and the initiation of some new members, the invited guests, a number of the boys of the Eastern High School, arrived and the remainder of the evening was spent very enjoyably in dancing.

Miss Mabel White, of 44 Eleventh street southeast, will be at home to her friends on Wednesday evenings from 8 to 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Theodore North McLaughlin is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Mary M. North, of Snow Hill, Md. Mrs. North is president of the American Woman's Press Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gerry, of East Capitol street extended, have sailed for Europe. They will go direct to Berlin upon their arrival. Their return home will probably be about December 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Oiler, of Thirtieth and B streets southeast, have left for an extended trip in the West. Much of their time will be spent in visiting Mr. Oiler's relatives, who live in Illinois. Before marriage Mrs. Oiler was Miss Gertrude Filer.

Miss Alma Gostin, of 111 Eleventh street southeast, entertained the Theta Pi Sorority, at her home Saturday evening. After a business meeting and the initiation of some new members, the invited guests, a number of the boys of the Eastern High School, arrived and the remainder of the evening was spent very enjoyably in dancing.

Miss Alma Gostin, of 111 Eleventh street southeast, entertained the Theta Pi Sorority, at her home Saturday evening. After a business meeting and the initiation of some new members, the invited guests, a number of the boys of the Eastern High School, arrived and the remainder of the evening was spent very enjoyably in dancing.

Miss Alma Gostin, of 111 Eleventh street southeast, entertained the Theta Pi Sorority, at her home Saturday evening. After a business meeting and the initiation of some new members, the invited guests, a number of the boys of the Eastern High School, arrived and the remainder of the evening was spent very enjoyably in dancing.

Miss Alma Gostin, of 111 Eleventh street southeast, entertained the Theta Pi Sorority, at her home Saturday evening. After a business meeting and the initiation of some new members, the invited guests, a number of the boys of the Eastern High School, arrived and the remainder of the evening was spent very enjoyably in dancing.

Miss Alma Gostin, of 111 Eleventh street southeast, entertained the Theta Pi Sorority, at her home Saturday evening. After a business meeting and the initiation of some new members, the invited guests, a number of the boys of the Eastern High School, arrived and the remainder of the evening was spent very enjoyably in dancing.

Miss Alma Gostin, of 111 Eleventh street southeast, entertained the Theta Pi Sorority, at her home Saturday evening. After a business meeting and the initiation of some new members, the invited guests, a number of the boys of the Eastern High School, arrived and the remainder of the evening was spent very enjoyably in dancing.

Miss Alma Gostin, of 111 Eleventh street southeast, entertained the Theta Pi Sorority, at her home Saturday evening. After a business meeting and the initiation of some new members, the invited guests, a number of the boys of the Eastern High School, arrived and the remainder of the evening was spent very enjoyably in dancing.

Miss Alma Gostin, of 111 Eleventh street southeast, entertained the Theta Pi Sorority, at her home Saturday evening. After a business meeting and the initiation of some new members, the invited guests, a number of the boys of the Eastern High School, arrived and the remainder of the evening was spent very enjoyably in dancing.

Miss Alma Gostin, of 111 Eleventh street southeast, entertained the Theta Pi Sorority, at her home Saturday evening. After a business meeting and the initiation of some new members, the invited guests, a number of the boys of the Eastern High School, arrived and the remainder of the evening was spent very enjoyably in dancing.

Alexandria

A large attended meeting of the Junior Local Assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew was held at St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, last Tuesday evening. An address of welcome was delivered by the Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's Church. Addresses also were delivered by J. Lewis Gibbs, president of the Washington assembly; Clarke Starnell, of Grace Church Chapter; and President Jackson, of the Seminary.

Belated Marriage Announcement.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Edgar Campbell, of this city, and Miss Mary Latham, of Washington, which was performed by the Rev. J. P. Stump, at the Methodist Episcopal Church parsonage, in Luray, Va., on October 31.

Werneke-Heishley Wedding.

Miss Katherine B. Heishley, of this city, and Hymie E. Werneke, of Washington, were married by the Rev. P. P. Phillips, at the rectory of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, last week.

Holy Name Reorganization.

The Holy Name Society has reorganized by the election of the following officers: James Patterson, Jr., president; Frank Monroe, vice president; Thomas Downey, secretary; Lee Fannon, treasurer; Phillip Gilly, chief marshal; Norris Roland, first marshal; Frank Nugent, second marshal.

Miss Maggie Micou a Bride.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Maggie Micou and Clarence Bagot. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A. Jeffers, at the parsonage of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, last week.

Notes and Personals.

Mrs. H. N. Parish and Miss Simpson, of this city, have returned from a visit to friends in Charlottesville.

John H. Parrott, of Salem, was in Alexandria last week.

Mrs. P. T. Yeatman had as her guest last week Miss Mary Curtis Lee.

J. Matthews was confined to his home by illness last week.

S. L. Monroe spent a few days on a gunning trip to Broad Run last week.

Harrison C. Magoon has been appointed superintendent of the National Cemetery at Arlington.

J. Randall Caton spent some time in New York last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Alexander, who have been visiting Mrs. C. C. Leadbeater in this city, have returned to their home in Lancaster, Pa.

Henry Padgett was confined to his home, in North Fayette street, last week by illness.

Mrs. F. V. J. Robinson, regent of Mt. Vernon Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, last week attended the State conference of that society in Richmond.

Mrs. A. J. Peterson left Alexandria last week for Birmingham, Ala., to spend the winter.

Charles King, who has been confined to his home in South St. Asaph street, is improving.

The Rev. Frank P. Berkeley, of Leesburg, occupied the pulpit of the Rev. Dr. Fisher, at the Baptist Church, last Sunday.

Mrs. William T. Wilkins left Alexandria for Danville, Va., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm W. Hill are visiting J. C. Smoot, at North Wilkesboro, N. C.

R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, last week elected Gen. G. W. Lee an honorary member of the camp.

Capt. Peter Geoghegan is ill at his home on the eastern shore of Maryland.

Capt. Joseph P. McCrirk, formerly of this city, but now of Washington, was in this city last week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Dempsey last week paid a visit to their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Carter, in Norfolk.

Miss Lucy Mason, of Louisville, who has been visiting Miss Gault Norton in this city, has left for Petersburg.

Mrs. John H. Foster and Miss Mildred Foster have returned from a visit to Fauquier county.

Mrs. Carrie Nowland, while stepping from an electric car at the corner of Fairfax and Prince streets last week, fell and was painfully injured.

Elisha Butler, who has been ill, is convalescent.

Richard Chieister was in town Wednesday.

Miss Jennie Robey and Miss Sara Kidwell spent a few days with Mrs. C. M. Walker the past week.

Mrs. Bean, of Loudoun county, passed a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Lang.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Crippen, after spending a few days with the latter's mother in Washington, have returned home.

Will and Frank Van Duesan visited their mother last week.

Mrs. R. C. Mahoney and Mrs. Arthur Middleton are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dave Mahoney at New Market, Va.

At a recent business meeting of the Fortnightly Club the following officers were elected: President, Miss Mamie R. Brady; vice president, Miss M. E. Buell; secretary, Mrs. F. W. Huddleston; assistant secretary, Miss Agnes Summers; treasurer, Mrs. C. Choate.

ONLY TO BE EXPECTED.

"Did you see where a scrap of paper played such a prominent part in a will case?"

"What of that? Isn't every fight over a will a scrap of paper?"

Richard Chieister was in town Wednesday.

Miss Jennie Robey and Miss Sara Kidwell spent a few days with Mrs. C. M. Walker the past week.

Mrs. Bean, of Loudoun county, passed a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Lang.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Crippen, after spending a few days with the latter's mother in Washington, have returned home.

Will and Frank Van Duesan visited their mother last week.

Mrs. R. C. Mahoney and Mrs. Arthur Middleton are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dave Mahoney at New Market, Va.

Congress Heights

The Young People's Benevolent Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church met recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Devall, of Brothers street, Randall Park. During the evening J. H. Hanna resigned as superintendent of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor Society, and Miss Maud Fowler was elected to fill the vacancy. After the business of the society was disposed of music and games completed an evening of pleasure.

Holding Revival Meetings.

The Rev. H. G. Spencer, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of this suburb, has entered the second week of the series of revival meetings in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Oxen Hill, Prince George county, Md., of which he is also pastor. The Rev. Mr. Spencer will start a series of revival meetings in this suburb, starting sometime in December.

Church Festival a Success.

The festival given Monday and Tuesday evenings in the Town Hall, on Hamilton road, by the Ladies' Guild of the Esther Memorial Protestant Episcopal Church, proved a success. The hall was decorated with foliage and bunting, there were a number of booths with members of the society in charge.

C. E. Society Meeting.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church met at the home of Miss Bell Ellis on Nichols avenue. After the business of the society was disposed of, the remainder of the evening was spent with music and games.

Ladies' Aid Society.

At a meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Brown, Mrs. A. E. McKay, as treasurer, tendered her resignation, and Mrs. Charles F. Purdy was elected to fill the vacancy.

Citizens' Association Meeting.

The Citizens' Association, of this suburb, will hold a meeting in the town hall on Hamilton road on Tuesday. The members are earnestly requested to be present.

Personal Mention.

Misses Pierson and Paine, of Farquhar county, Va., are visiting at the home of their relatives, Mrs. Etta Pierson, of Nichols avenue and Philadelphia street.

Driver Earl Ryan, of Chemical Engine Company, No. 5, has returned to his duties, after a ten days' leave, and Assistant Driver Tim O'Neill is now on leave for ten days.

William G. Bratton, of Park street, is on a week's cruise to Newport News and Norfolk, Va., on the United States tug, Tumsech, of which he is chief machinist.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hickerson, of Falls Church, Va., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Woods, of Park street.

Miss Katherine Cook has returned home from several months' trip to the British Isles.

Lawrence Rhinehart and family are occupying the McKim cottage on Nichol avenue.

R. H. White, of Philadelphia and Eighth streets, has gone to Arizona.

Mrs. Hattie Brady has returned home after an extended trip to Maine.

Miss Sadie Detwiler spent the week end with her brother, Dr. B. B. Detwiler.

Miss Maude Yount has returned home after a visit to friends in Washington.

Mr. Henry Farham, of Washington, is visiting Mrs. W. S. Blanchard.

Mrs. Powell Summers passed a few days the past week with her mother, Mrs. R. E. Outton.

Mrs. Mattie Stephenson and Mrs. Cousins visited the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Baylas, of New Jersey, is passing several days with her brother, Mr. Madison Kenfield.

Mrs. M. E. Robey has returned home after a pleasant visit with her parents in Leesburg.